We encourage everyone to learn from these free sessions, understand the process and opportunities and attempt your Canadian Permanent Residence with an educated understanding of the process. Being a Canadian Corporation and a recruitment firm, we are here to assist those who need someone in Canada to represent their Immigration and Employment interest. Our services go beyond just filling forms!

Canadian Immigration approaches are changing post covid. With limitations in the number of people Canada took in for several months, the number of people in the Express Entry pool has risen to an all-time high. But do not fear! Canada has several immigration pathways which offer Permanent Residence pathways, even for people over 60 years of age! Polinsys has created a platform of multiple PR options depending on what you consider as a weakness in a Canadian PR application and converts it into strengths with other migration pathways. For example, if you are 47 years old and consider a challenge with Express Entry and CRS scores, you would be the prime candidate for Employer driven programs like AIPP and RNIP because those programs value your work experience.
